Abstract

Three G Software Co.,Ltd. is the IT service provider, consist of hardware system, software solution and computer network. They encounter the mistake about quotation document and data record management that save in spreadsheet by Microsoft Excel. Therefore, we, are cooperative education internship, had be assigned to develop the accounting management program for software house for automatically document management and record data in database. By using web application technology and framework. And also design overview for further development.

Keyword : Three G Software Co.,Ltd./Web Application/Spring Framework/Account system