

Project	Stock Hardware Computer Application On Android Platform
Project Credits	2 Units
Candidate	Miss Nuttira	Wimonphan	5504800015
Advisor Miss	Miss Veena	Chotchaung
Program	Bachelor of Science
Field of study	Computer Science
B.E.	2558

Abstract

Thailand Thai Union Group PLC. is a manufacturer and exporter of canned and frozen seafood at large. There are a lot of people in the organization as well as equipment and supplies for production or systems. Such as computers The company has a large number of computers. Cause problems for management. The company will manage the property used to reduce the financial problems in changing the computer or device each time. The data collected from a variety of computing devices in Microsoft Excel, which has changed. Those who have a duty of care, should be able to fix it. And makes it difficult to find information, the company needed a system that would be able to find a device that is fast and accurate. The authors have developed and designed app offers stock of computer equipment on the platform Android, according to the company's needs by scanning the QR Code to edit information directly and quickly. Has developed a system using Android Studio and managed database with MySQL and can leave all computer components and make operations in Thailand Union Group PLC. is a quick and effective increase.

Keywords : Thai Union Group PLC./ application /Stock Hardware Computer