

Abstract

Andovar(Thailand) Co., Ltd. is a global provider of multilingual content solutions. Our services range from text translation and content creation, through audio and video recording, to turnkey localization of websites, software, e-Learning, video and games. The company has assigned such tasks as prepare the files for translation into the system. Update the database for translations. Create customer data, etc.

The preparation of cooperative education. The study of Wordbee-Translator Program to study the process and the system that company use. From those experiences, I obtained logical thinking, analyzing, solving problems and making teamwork systemically.

Keyword: workflow / translation / languages.